Thinking Like an Archaeologist about Fort Henrietta

Listen closely to the video, then your teacher, to learn about the evidence used by archaeologists to confirm the location of Fort Henrietta.

What historical documents provided evidence of the Fort's location? Check off all that apply.

- ☐ Letters and journal descriptions of fort being built
- ☐ Fort blueprints
- ☐ Muster roll
- ☐ Quartermaster report
- ☐ Map of military movements
- ☐ Letters describing the Fort being destroyed

Draw and label a couple quick sketches of some of the artifacts that archaeologists used to confirm the location of Fort Henrietta:

Draw your imagined scene of tkúpa here...

Describe what you imagine in writing here...

What does the setting look like? What can be heard, smelled, felt? Who are the people in your scene? What are they doing? When in time are you imagining? Are you there too?

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.
