Thinking Like an Archaeologist about Fort Henrietta

Listen closely to the video, then your teacher, to learn about the evidence used by archaeologists to confirm the location of Fort Henrietta.

What historical documents provided evidence of the Fort's location? Check off all that apply.

- ☐ Letters and journal descriptions of fort being built
- ☐ Fort blueprints
- ☐ Muster roll
- ☐ Quartermaster report
- ☐ Map of military movements
- ☐ Letters describing the Fort being destroyed

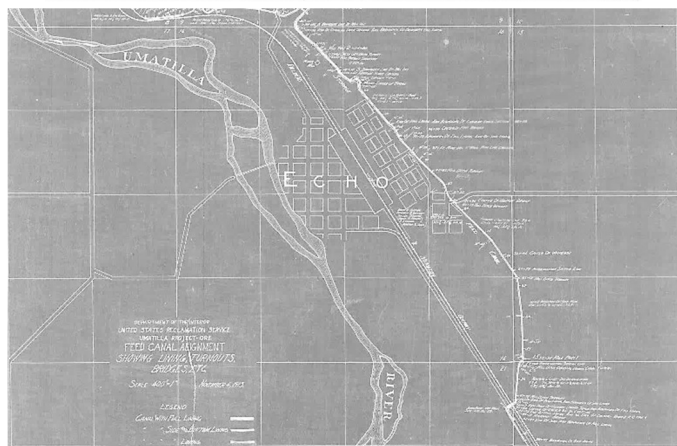

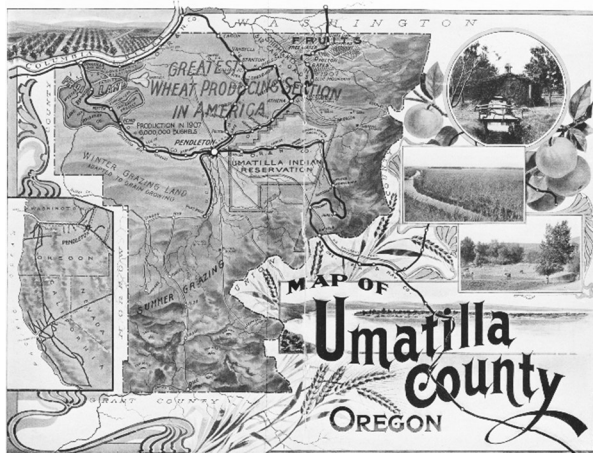

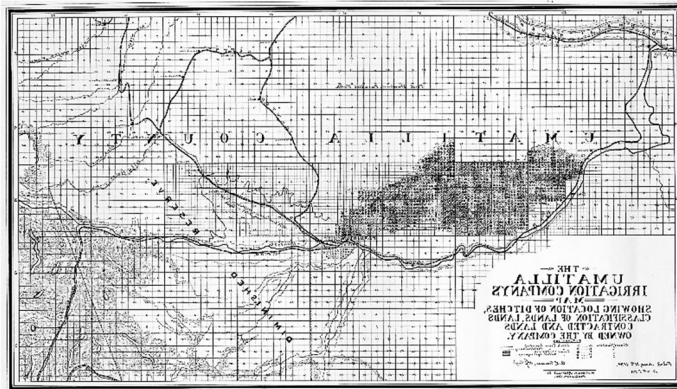

Draw and label a few quick sketches of some of the artifacts that archaeologists used to confirm the location of Fort Henrietta:

Three large, empty rectangular boxes with hand-drawn black outlines, arranged horizontally. These boxes are intended for students to draw and label sketches of artifacts that archaeologists used to confirm the location of Fort Henrietta.

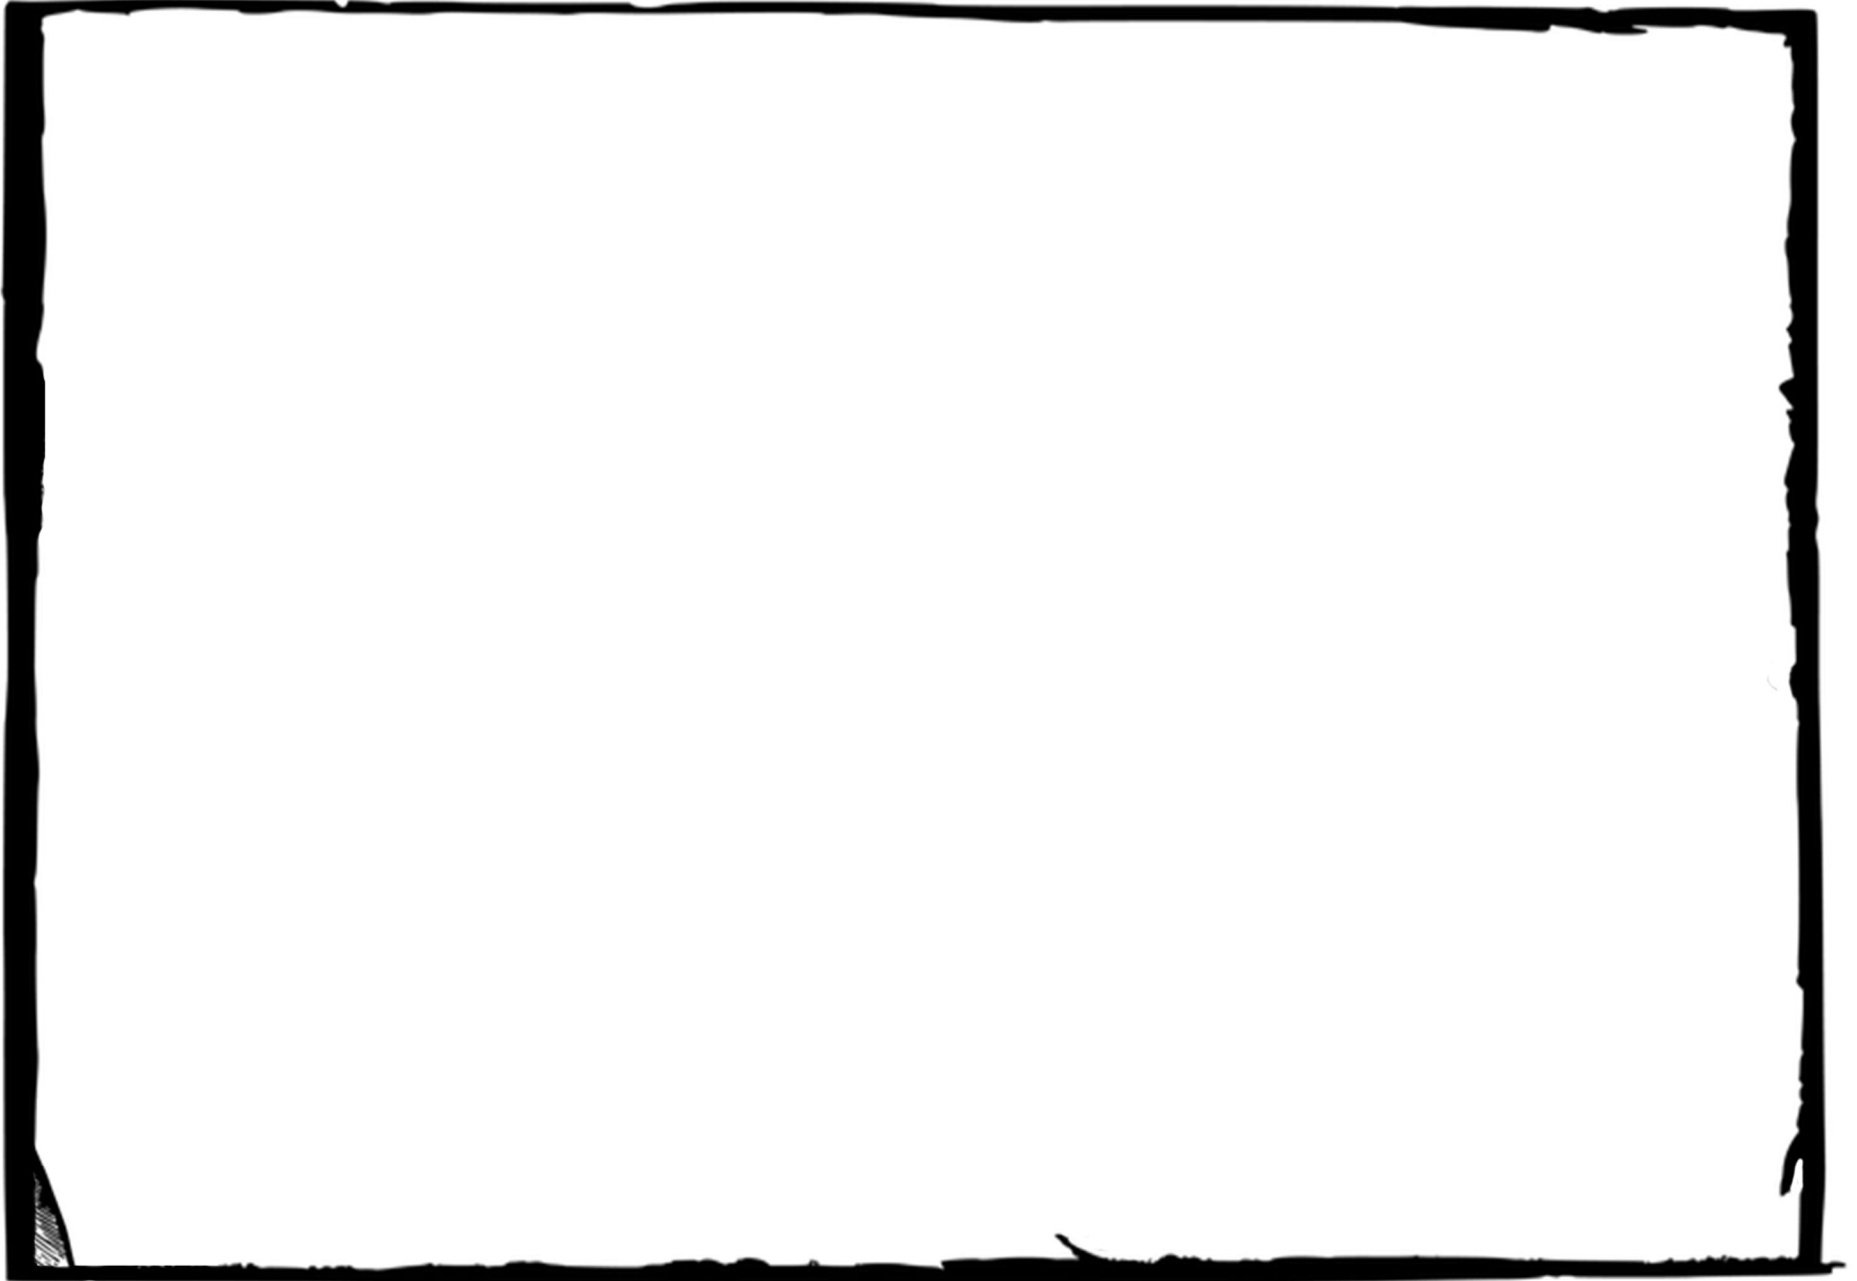

What evidence of change do you and your classmates see in each of these maps?

Draw your imagined scene of tkúpa here...

This image shows a blank sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.
